.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue an order, direction or writ, particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus, declaring the action of the respondent in not regularizing the services of the petitioner as illegal, arbitrary and violative of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India and further declare that the petitioner is entitled to the consideration for appointment on regular basis in preference to others and pass such further order or other orders.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.Y.S.VENKATA RAO

Counsel for the Respondents: MR. VIJAYA BHASKAR.

The Court Made the Following:

ORDER:

The petitioner who was working as a daily wage worker in the first respondent residential school filed this writ petition for regularisation of her service.

As the interviews were about to be conducted, she filed W.P.M.P.No.17123 of 1993 seeking to consider her candidature for the interview on par with others. This Court by an order dated 10-09-1993 directed the respondents to permit the petitioner to appear for the interview to be held on 11-09-1993. This Court further directed that no order of appointment shall be given to the petitioner until further orders, in case she is selected.

At this stage, the learned Counsel for the petitioner submitted that during the course of interviews held on 11-09-1993, the petitioner was not selected and subsequently, she was removed from out of service.

In the light of the above, I see no merits in the writ petition and the same is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
